Re: United States v. Greebel, S1 15 Cr. 637 (KAM)

Dear Judge Matsumoto:

We respectfully submit this letter in response to the government's untimely October 24 letter motion in limine (filed under seal) to preclude cross-examination of prior government investigations and civil litigations relating to a government witness to whom the government refers only by his initials. Although we are concerned about the untimely disclosure of Giglio material known to the government since before the Shkreli trial that was only disclosed to us during the first week of this trial, and although this Giglio material would ordinarily be appropriate to use to challenge the witness's credibility or veracity, we do not expect this witness to have any direct testimony of relevance to this case, based on his prior testimony in the Shkreli trial and his Section 3500 material produced by the government here. We therefore have no present intention to use any of this information at this trial.

Respectfully,

/s/ Randy M. Mastro
